THE GREEN YEARS

1955

WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

WESTWOOD, MASS.

The Ways

To every man there openeth

A Way, and Ways, and a Way.

And the High Soul climbs the High Way,

And the Low Soul gropes the Low,

And in between, on the misty flats,

The rest drift to and fro.

But to every man there openeth

A High Way, and a Low.

And every man decideth

The Way his soul shall go.

—JOHN OXENHAM.

Foreword

We have chosen as our theme "The Upward Trail." It symbolizes man's journey through life and his attempt to reach his goals. In our climb we come to plateaus where we do not seem to be making progress; we meet obstacles difficult to surmount; but by hard work, honest endeavor, and strong faith, we may scale the summit. In our upward climb we have the help of a Guiding Hand. Along the way, too, we have the counsel and understanding of our parents, teachers, and friends.

These pages depict only a fragment of our journey. As our paths separate, may we ever climb toward new heights.

*"My heart has no desire to stay
Where doubts arise and fears dismay;
Though some may dwell where these abound,
My prayer, my aim, is higher ground."*

—JOHNSON OATMAN, JR.

Mrs. Marion Healy

"A great love goes here with a little gift."

To you, Mrs. Healy, we, the Class of 1955, affectionately dedicate this book with many fond memories and many thanks for your endless loyalty both as class adviser and yearbook adviser. Your ever-present friendliness has always been most inspiring and reassuring.

"Not by years, but by disposition, is wisdom acquired."

To you, Mr. Marshall, we, the Class of 1955, make this dedication because you have been to us not only a teacher to whom we could always turn, but you have been, also, an untiring friend. You have loyally guided our class through the years.

Class Song

Tune to "Green Years"

*Green Years, where did you run to?
Beautiful Green Years, where did you fly?
These past four years make us wish
They would always go on,—
But youth is a dreamer and now we
Awaken to a new dawn.
We give thanks to those who have Helped us to realize dreams and overcome fears.
And though we are leaving we'll never forget
All the joys and the friendships
Of our ever Green Years.
Westwood High, we face a bright future
Of our new decisions, laughter, and tears.
We know that someday you'll be proud of us all
In our lives ever after these most cherished
Green Years.*

JANICE CONFORTI.

DOROTHY PORTMAN.

Class Poem

*Mountains have a beauty
Proudly flung against the sky;
How unimportant they make
Us feel—you and I.
Beneath their lofty snow-capped peaks,
Sparkling pure and white,
Scarcely can we far below,
Discern them with our sight.
Majestic, tremendous, awesome,
Surveying all below;
How very small we really are,
How little do we know.
Perfection in such mighty ones,
Inspired must we be,
Holding high their towering crowns
For the race of man to see.
Splendid mountains, so serene,
We raise our eyes above;
You seem to cradle all our dreams
Of wisdom and of love.
Silent, watching, hoping,
From a height so far away,
How many morns have you seen come
Beginning a new day?
Scarred and worn by rock and ice
In every single year,
May we as steadfastly endure
Our share of grief and fear.
This thing shall we remember—
This earth is merely sod;
High must we aim, and then like you—
Be closer to our God.*

Class History

Our freshman year, the first of our four, long trails along the side of our second mountain, was one of wonder—wonder at the activities of high school, and wonder at the sovereignty of the senior trail which to us then seemed so far away.

After our first shaky steps, the way became easier as we became acquainted with our teachers and other friends. Arthur Mace, Tony French, Cynthia MacMahon, and Gerry Colburn were our leaders, helping to clear the trail ahead of us. Soon after, we learned that two of our guides, Cynthia and Tony, had to leave our group for a new trail on another mountain.

Before they left, however, we decided to entertain ourselves and, at the same time, give thanks to the Almighty for our good fortune so far. A little play was presented called "A Modern Thanksgiving." Those ahead of us on the second, third, and fourth trails, paused in their climbing to share our presentation.

Soon after Thanksgiving, Carol Richenburg and David Lowry stepped toward the front of our group to take the places of those who had left. Always we shall remember Cynthia and Tony for the grand friends they were and how deeply we regretted their having to leave us so early on our upward climb.

Halfway up, we held a wonderful dance for everyone which was under the capable direction of Gayle Ness, Norman Ricker, and Roger Langley.

Then amazingly enough, Artie Mace, Dave Lowry, and Jackie Tripp all underwent surgery at practically the same time. We were delighted when they joined our group again, and we started up the last half of our freshman trail.

In March, we presented a "Truth or Consequence Show" with all the fixings. It was in March, also, that we learned that our class had the privilege of choosing the school ring. This meant that now we would have a ring distinctly our own and that they would be considerably less expensive for us and the classes to follow.

Classes to follow . . . and there was one already, for before we knew it, we had started up the second trail. This one was a little narrower and rockier than the first, but we were by this time used to climbing and did it much more easily.

Dorothy Portman was fast becoming a sensation with her organ, for soon the talented Dotty was playing at the Hotel Beaconsfield!

Nicholas Norris, who has since left us, had a miserable time with that strained ankle of his; but he managed beautifully to get up and down the stairs on those crutches!

Honor again was brought to the sophomore class, for now Jean Freitas won a beautiful clock radio in a nation-wide photography contest.

Soon we were measured for our class rings, and we received them before Christmas.

Then our fabulous "Hobo Hop" came along, with the oldest clothes in Westwood attending!

That was election year also; and candidates were on our minds, especially when Peter Hennessy announced that the French "Vous-estes" (pronounced that way too) was Estes Kefauver's long lost uncle. So, despite the rocky way, humor found its way into our midst and urged us ever upward. We struggled on in silence except for a chuckle or laugh here and there.

Then things started to get noisier again when Andy Panda hit us with a bang. Accompanying Andy were some gorgeous gals from Cuba; and, between the two of them, they provided a cheerful assembly.

Then, once again, more climbers joined our ever-increasing group. They were Winifred del Greco, Sandra Shaw, Ann Gates, Rita Gilchrist, Mildred Hanlon, John Pernokas, and Peter Hennessy.

Toward the end of this trail, we gave the beautiful "Spring-time Swing," with music by our own Gerry Colburn and his Firehouse-Five-Minus-One. The music was heavenly and ushered Spring with all her loveliness into our hearts. At the same time, she brought with her a touch of sadness; for we now realized we had passed the halfway point in our ascent toward the summit.

In September, 1953, we ventured into our junior year, the last half of our journey up the trail. Our leaders were the same as in previous years: Artie Mace, president; Dave Lowry, vice president; Carol Richenburg, secretary; and Gerry Colburn, treasurer. Our guides up the trail that year were Mrs. Smith, Mr. Clohesy and Mr. Davis.

Our most important task as juniors was the production of the most wonderful dance of our high-school years, the Junior-Senior Prom. After much lengthy discussion we chose "Paris" as our theme and named the dance "An Evening in Paris." We chose Gerry Colburn as our prom-committee chairman, and we began planning elaborately for decorations. Everyone of us will remember our "Tour Eiffel" and the problems it presented. Although we began to feel it would never be completed on time, everyone agreed it was most beautiful and spectacular.

Our football dance was another success and who could forget our "minstrel show"—the eggs and all!

In June of that year we decided to venture to Old Silver Beach in Falmouth. In spite of the inclement weather we all had an enjoyable time. All in all, our junior climb was a most happy and pleasant one.

On September 8, 1954, we started climbing the last trail with Artie, Dave, Carol, and Gerry. At last we had reached the senior trail; however, we didn't fully realize it until our advisors, Mrs. Healy and Mr. Marshall, started to discuss class pictures, yearbooks, and such things pertaining to our last journey upward. The evenings of October 17 and 18 were chosen as Sponsor Nights, and we canvassed both Islington and Westwood collecting money for our yearbook. The results were most gratifying, and we thank everyone who contributed, thus making our beautiful yearbook possible.

Our class was well represented in the "Wolverines," and we were all tremendously excited when we won the Thanksgiving game with Medfield, who, until that time, had been undefeated. For years to come we shall remember our "victory parade" with the sirens of the fire engines announcing our victory along the route home.

During the remainder of our final year at Westwood High, we were occupied with assemblies, the senior play, "The Happiest Days of Your Life," and as a climax to a "terrific" year, the memorable prom which the juniors presented.

We were then confronted with so many things pertaining to our graduation that we were forced to realize that at last we were nearing the end of our trail.

Now we have reached the end of our journey with triumph and a sense of accomplishment. We extend a humble thanks to our teachers, advisors, classmates, and everyone who has helped to make our four-year climb a successful one.

Once again we must start at the bottom of another mountain trail. From here the Class of 1955 shall take various paths, each climbing to meet his own personal goal on the trail of life in the future.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1955, of Westwood High School, being mentally and physically sound, do hereby proclaim this as our last will and testament. And we do bequeath our many possessions and valuable talents to our benefactors.

MARTHA ALBANI leaves her baton to a next year's twirler.

BURTON "TRUM" ABEL leaves his passing ability to the next year's quarterback.

ALAN BENSON leaves his surprising way with women to Francis Gianni.

ALVAH BORMAN leaves his good-naturedness to David Baker.

EDITH BORMAN leaves her height to Helen Fitzpatrick.

ROBERT BOYNTON leaves his many jokes and quips to the one who would dare to use them, especially in English classes.

LORETTA CAMPENELLA leaves with Frank. Need we say more?

GERRY COLBURN (alias "Butch," "Colby," and "Pudge,") leaves in his plane.

EDMUND COMEAU leaves his camera to John Porteous.

JANICE CONFORTI leaves her liking for rhythm and blues records to Anne Fletcher.

WILLIAM CONGO leaves his sound-effects job to anyone who can do as good a job as he did.

JOHN CONNELLY leaves his freckles to Peter Quinn.

NANCY DE L'ETOILE leaves her sunny disposition to Jane Reese who really doesn't need it.

GARY DESOTO leaves his saxophone to a prospective band member.

ROGER ELLIS leaves his lovely, curly hair to Bob Marvin. The question is who needs it the most?

KENNY EVERTS leaves his ability to talk in French about the parts of a car to any one student in need of an oral French talk.

HARRY FIELD leaves his "harem" to all interested boys.

DOROTHEA FINDLAY leaves her musical talent to Robin Watson.

JOSEPH FITZPATRICK leaves his vim, vigor, and fiery temper to Kenny Dresser.

THOMAS FORSTER leaves the Shell Gas Station to anyone who wants it.

JEAN-LOUIS FOUSSE leaves his jitterbugging to anyone who can dance as well as he can.

JUDY FOWELL leaves her reading ability to Joan Larcom.

WILLIAM FRASCA leaves those sharp suits to Donny Jones. Now watch all the girls come running!

JEAN FREITAS leaves for Falmouth on the first bus.

RUSSELL FRENCH leaves his many involved chemistry projects to Mike Frucci.

RITA GILCHRIST leaves her red-hot temper to Lois Ciriello.

CHARLES GOOCH leaves his "cat" clothes to Larry Cook.

MILDRED HANLON leaves her wit to Carol Compton who doesn't need it.

ARNOLD HAYDEN leaves his locker full of pocket-edition books to Billy McGoldrick.

ROBERT HENDRICKSON leaves his fish to Paul Dorey.

PETER HENNESSY leaves his pool table to anyone that wants it. He had a hard time winning over his brother Paul.

ANITA KELLY leaves her soft voice to Joyce LaMotte.

DOROTHY KELLY leaves McLellan's, and very happy to.

JAMES LALLY leaves his ability to "peel" in any car to Eddie Bill.

THOMAS LALLY leaves his job at the drug store, and very gratefully.

LOUIS LAROCCA leaves his shy, reserved way to George Lapham.

JOAN FOWLES leaves Cuba to the Cubans.

ROGER LANGLEY leaves his lines in the Dramatics Club to all who can act.

BRENDA LAWSON leaves her cheerleading ability to Linda Manimon.

DAVID LOWRY leaves his sousaphone to anyone who thinks he's strong enough to lift it.

ARTHUR MACE leaves his class presidency to anyone who can fill the job as capably as he did for six years.

WILLIAM MACDONALD leaves a little "tranquility" to Stanley Romaine.

CHRISTINE MACLEAN leaves her lovely smile and quiet charm to anyone who feels in need of a little "sunshine."

THERESE MACLEOD leaves a wish that Carole Miller will be a regular cheerleader next year.

ROBERT McDUGALL leaves—but someday he will return to W. H. S.—this time as a teacher.

GORDON McLAREN leaves to take over the job of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. As a side-line, he'll substitute for Groucho Marx. You'll really "bet your life" with him.

CLAIRE MCLEOD leaves her secretarial job with Mr. Panichas to anyone so inclined. Good luck!

VALERIE MILLER leaves her dramatic ability to Vernice Van Ham, although Vernice already has enough of it.

PAUL NELSON leaves a comic dictionary to next year's senior English class.

PETER NELSON leaves his favorite record, "Rain, Rain, Rain," to the band with the hope they will learn how to play it.

GAYLE NESS leaves all her giggles to Carroll Pugh.

PETER MORLEY leaves his camera to next year's Nahatan News photographer.

JOHN PENDLETON leaves a challenge to next year's Senior Class to produce a yearbook as good as that of the Class of 1955.

WALTER POIRIER leaves all "unfair" politics for next year's P. O. D. class to argue about.

CAROLYN PAIGE leaves her date book to anyone who thinks she can fill it as quickly as she did.

JOHN PERNOKAS leaves a new zoom-zoom, fluid-drive, non-skid hot-rod to any poor soul who'll take it.

DOROTHY PORTMAN leaves her organ to anyone who can play it. Maybe there's someone else here with talent!

JUDY POTTER leaves her motto, "Room for one more," to everyone that can fit into her truck.

JOHN PRITCHARD leaves the Nahatan News and all its "dead-lines" to Joyce LaMotte.

BRUCE PROBERT leaves Maybelle to nobody.

CAROL RICHENBURG leaves her cheerful personality to all underclassmen. (She has enough of it to go around.)

NORMAN RICKER leaves his basketball uniform to Philip Daley.

ANNE RITTER leaves a ready-made yearbook cover to the Art Editor of the next GREEN YEARS.

PAULA ROBINSON won't leave "Chuck" to anybody.

GEORGE ROCHE leaves Judy—but he'll be back.

DAVID SAALFELDER leaves to be a hot-rod driver at Norwood Arena.

KENNY TALANIAN leaves his clever wit to next year's Nahatan News staff.

JACK TRIPP leaves a charmed football to Bill McGoldrick.

RICHARD WATSON leaves a Fishing and Hunting magazine in the library.

EDWARD WHITING leaves his little green convertible to Bob Marvin.

BARBARA WILKIE leaves for Sharon with "Brooky."

BETSY WOODRUFF leaves a red Cadillac convertible with zebra upholstery to next year's Driver Education Class.

JOYCE WILLARD leaves in a cloud of dust in her Oldsmobile.

TEDDY WOODING leaves to all underclassmen cherished memories of the Senior Class.

ARTHUR VANHALL leaves a new stock boy to the teachers of W. H. S.

TO MR. CHASE we leave a cheerleading uniform to accompany that cheer.

TO MR. KOCINA—a broom. Now you can sweep them out of the corridors in the morning.

TO MR. DAVIS—a 2,000-pound bar-bell. See if you can lift this!

TO MR. VITALI—a Stradivarius. Make merry music!

TO MRS. MEALY—a burnt cookie, symbol of this year's Home Ec classes. Better luck next year!

TO MR. ATCHUE—a class of "Amazons" to change tires. We found it quite rough.

TO MR. MARKARIAN—a phonograph record which will automatically ask for contributions at the end of the concerts.

TO MR. PANICHAS—an appointment book to keep a record of your busy schedule.

TO MR. PIERCE—an automatic slide rule. Now you won't have to keep "whipping" out yours.

TO MISS WILLIAMS—dust-free chalk. See if you can get this on your clothes!

TO MR. WALLACE—a portable secretary; now maybe you can keep those papers straight!

TO COACH BADER—a football jersey. Some of your others were mislaid!

TO MRS. COLLINS—a weighted basketball that will always go in.

TO MISS BURNS—a gold-plated copy of "Macbeth" in memory of those senior English classes.

TO MR. SARRIS—a pair of suspenders. Need we say more?

TO MRS. BAIR—a lock and key to keep those reference books intact.

TO MISS KNIGHT—another ticket to sunny Florida.

TO MR. CHICETTI—a blue ribbon for the excellent work your students have turned out under your capable direction.

TO MR. WELLSMAN—a fireman's hat. This one can be kept at school instead of in your car.

TO MISS KEENAN—the car of your dreams.

TO MRS. SMITH—a jet of your own to speed you to Orleans.

TO MR. MONAGHAN—a gold baton as a symbol of your fine directing of the W. H. S. Dance Band.

TO MR. MARSHALL—a bow tie. The long ones don't do you justice.

TO MRS. HEALY—a pre-edited yearbook for next year. Now you can relax!

Class Prophecy

The vast horizon of the world unfolds itself beyond our mountain peaks as we, the Class of 1955, focus our telescope upon it.

Gazing toward the Caribbean Sea, we discover JOHN PRITCHARD coming out of his newly established hotel to greet the recent bride, LORETTA CAMPENELLA, who, with her charming husband, have come here to spend their honeymoon. Beyond the Caribbean stretches the Amazon. Here we find BILL CONGO engineering the building of a suspension bridge for his United States firm. Incidentally, we learn that he is awaiting the patent on his new invention of a super-dynamo engine, built for extra speed and power on those South American mountains. Slightly to the east lies Cuba where we find JOAN FOWLES teaching Spanish to the natives. Here, also is the TOM FORSTER Oil Company and Gas Station where JIM LALLY industriously repairs southern car models assisted by TEDDY WOODING and DAVID SAALFELDER.

We now turn our telescope northward to Bates College where we encounter BOB MACDOUGALL, introducing the latest theories concerning modern education, and ROGER LANGLEY who is now exploiting his theories as full professor in astronomy. Not far away is ANNE RITTER, teaching art in the public schools, while JOHN TRIPP and ALVAH BORMAN instruct the pupils in their physical education course. Also, PAUL NELSON spends his leisure time in this part of the country leading scout expeditions up near-by mountains. A plane buzzes overhead piloted by GERRY COLBURN with perky BRENDA LAWSON making a very capable stewardess. She serves lunch to JOHN PENDLETON, editor of the New York Times, who is on his way to attend a special Paris conference where the American diplomat, HARRY FIELD, has distinguished himself in his brilliant presentation of the new American foreign policy.

Turning our telescope toward the business world we discover the MACLAREN and VAN HALL Law Firm where NANCY DE L'ETOILE works as SKIP'S private secretary, and JUDY POTTER and EDITH BORMAN type ARTIE'S numerous law reports. Looking across the street we find BETSY WOODRUFF coming out of a modeling agency accompanied by her two business managers, MILDRED HANLON and RITA GILCHRIST. Continuing down the street we come to the FITZPATRICK Television Studios where Joe is starring his old friend Bob on the BOB BOYNTON Comedy Hour. VALERIE MILLER competently handles the technical arrangements, while BILL FRASCA manages the publicity. In the accompanying studio is DOROTHY PORTMAN participating in a special organ premiere.

Farther down this street is the impressive business firm of GEORGE ROCHE, JOHN CONNELLY, and JOHN PERNOKAS, ably assisted by secretaries JOYCE

WILLARD, BARBARA WILKIE, DOTTY KELLEY, and CAROLYN PAIGE. Turning toward one of New York's better hospitals, we discover student nurses, CLAIRE McLEOD, PAULA ROBINSON, CHRISTINE MacLEAN, and T. D. McLEOD witnessing an operation performed by surgeon CAROL RICHENBURG. Also ANITA KELLY is busy here with her physical therapy treatments.

Travelling toward the Maine woods we see BRUCE PROBERT scanning the sky from his ranger station for any forest fires, while DICK WATSON fishes in a near-by stream. He is accompanied by KENNY TALANIAN, who is stocking up on wild life for the ROBERT HENDRICKSON Pet Shop where he is employed.

Turning our vision southward we find ARTHUR MACE, proprietor of a Texas farm. PETER HENNESSY adroitly assists him as head bronco buster, while PETER NELSON rides the range looking for danger. Travelling toward California we discover DAVID LOWRY teaching music appreciation at the University of Southern California. DOROTHEA FINDLAY is in this same vicinity, also teaching music to her elementary school pupils.

We change our position again, looking over our mountains toward the East and Europe. The BENSON engineering firm is temporarily located in Paris. Beni is assisted by ROGER ELLIS, GARY DESOTO, and PETER MORLEY; JEAN-LOUIS FOUSSE has been very helpful as an interpreter. Moving southward we discover Doctor BURTON ABEL establishing his practice among the African natives with GAYLE NESS managing the secretarial work for him. Geologist RUSSELL FRENCH is here, too, looking for rare rock formations, while KENNY EVERTS, LOUIS LARocca, and TOMMY LALLY explore Egyptian ruins along the Nile. Journeying toward India we discover American ambassador, NORMAN RICKER, conferring with the Indian premier.

EDDIE COMEAU and WALTER POIRIER have embarked on their raft for the Japanese shore. Travelling across the Pacific we sight EDDIE WHITING and BILLY MacDONALD going through ship maneuvers for the new recruits near the Hawaiian Islands.

Journeying over America we find that JUDITH FOWELL has written a play which is currently starring MARTHA ALBANI and JANICE CONFORTI. Travelling northward we see JEAN FREITAS in Falmouth entertaining the soldiers stationed there. This is appreciated by CHARLES GOOCH, who is instructor at the air base, and by ARNOLD HAYDEN, who is building rocket ships for the army.

Once more we turn our telescope and gaze over the world's wide expanse. Our survey of the past has come to an end, and we now come to rest at last on the misty mountains of the future.

JUDITH FOWELL,
DOROTHEA FINDLAY.

FRENCH CLUB

With Miss Williams' help the French Club enjoyed many talks by club members. The club was pleased to have as its president Westwood's foreign-exchange student. Officers: President, Jean-Louis Foussé; Vice-President, Paula Robinson; Secretary, Christine McLean; Treasurer, Roger Langley.

NAHATAN NEWS

Thanks to the hard-working staff, this year the Nahatan News has a "new look" and up-to-date news. Special credit should be given to editor John Pritchard for his hard work in organizing the paper and also for his writing of many interesting articles.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Early in September the Student Council, under the leadership of Miss Keenan, met with the popular officers including: President, David Lowry; Vice-President, Gordon McLaren; Secretary, Gayle Ness; and Treasurer, Burton Abel. Among the Student Council's great accomplishments this year was the support it gave to the Foreign Exchange Student Fund.

MIXED CHORUS

Membership leaped over the two hundred mark as Mr. Markarian led the Mixed Chorus through two wonderful concerts. Westwood High has just reason to be proud of this group.

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Curious Savage, starring Vernice Van Ham, was presented by the Dramatics Club on December 10 and 11, under the direction of Miss Burns.

The club enjoyed a course in make-up and attended a play in Boston. Officers: President, Roger Langley; Vice-President, Vernice Van Ham; Treasurer, Doris Ritter; Secretary, Ann Ritter.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The competent direction of Mr. Markarian capably led the Girls' Glee Club to another year of successful singing. Also to share in the praise given to the organization are the two accompanists, Marilyn Nicholas and Loretta DiBlasio.

DRIVER EDUCATION

Over eighty students enrolled in our outstanding Driver Education Program this year, more than doubling last year's class. Under the expert and patient supervision of Mr. Marshall and Mr. Atchue, many students have learned to be safe and courteous drivers on the highways.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The club has experienced many good times together under Mr. Markarian's excellent leadership. This is the club's fifth year of origination, and the boys have lent their talents to both the Christmas and Spring Concerts. The two pianists, Lee Chamberlin and Vernice Van Ham, have also added to the club's success.

BAND

In addition to adding color to the football games, the band, directed by Mr. Markarian, performed very capably at the Veteran's Day parade, the Booster Club dinner, the spring concert, and the music festival at Mansfield in May.

DRUM MAJORETTES

A few new faces and pleasing smiles joined our crew of twirlers who faithfully marched at both our home and away football games. Members of the group were Diana de l'Etoile, Martha Albani, Carla Keith, Joyce Willard, Ann Murphy, Judith Smith, Marie Latorella, Robin Watson, Carroll Pugh, Brenda Sullivan, and Dorothy Pritchard.

CHEERLEADERS

The high point of this season's cheering was the winning of the cheerleading trophy at Norwood High School. Congratulations go to: Brenda Lawson, Captain; Patricia Beyer, Therese MacLeod, Nancy de l'Etoile, Gayle Ness, Rita Gilchrist, Judith Crosby, Anne Fletcher, Mildred Hanlon.

TENNIS

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Pierce, the tennis team enjoyed a highly successful season. As tennis is becoming more and more popular every year, we are looking forward to even better seasons in the future.

DOUBLE QUARTET

This year the Double Quartet again rose to popularity under the fine leadership of Mr. Markarian. Their public appearances included the Christmas Festival and the Spring Festival. Its members are: Lee Chamberlin, Maybelle Wallin, Arthur Mace, Michael Frucci, David Lowry, Gerry Colburn, Dorothea Findlay, and Vernice Van Ham. Marilyn Nicholas is the accompanist.

SENIOR PLAY

"The Happiest Days of Your Life" was held in the High School Auditorium on the evenings of April 15 and 16. The cast included the following: Janice Conforti, Carol Richenburg, Anne Ritter, Joan Fowles, Arthur Van Hall, Robert Boynton, Roger Langley, John Pritchard, Dorothea Findlay, Valerie Miller, Robert McDougall, John Pernokas, and David Lowry.

Under the direction of Miss Burns the play was an overwhelming success.

ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra is still growing, this year having presented concerts and having accompanied the choruses. Dorothy Portman again assisted with the Hammond Organ. Many thanks go to Mr. Markarian for his untiring efforts with this group.

The '55 Wolverines were coached by Mr. Bader and Mr. Davis. . . . The team was greatly inspired by its enthusiastic backfield. . . . The line was the heaviest in several years, having an average weight of 187 pounds. . . . The record of 4-3-1 did not justify the individual performances of the players. . . . We were proud to have Burt Abel and Skip McLaren receive honorable mention for All-Scholastic. . . . The Green and White ended the year victoriously by trampling previously undefeated Medfield 20-0. What a perfect ending to Coach Bader's career in Westwood High School!
